

CHOOSE TO BE NICE

COMFORT READS

We've selected some of our favorite books from the Choose To Be Nice curriculum to read and relax with at home. Share the list with students to read on their own or host a virtual storytime.

---

Kindergarten - The Kindness Quilt, By Nancy Wallace

Discussion question: How does kindness make you feel?

First Grade - Up the Creek, By Nicholas Oldland

Discussion question: How can you and your family work together as a team at home?

Second Grade - Days With Frog And Toad, By Arnold Lobel

Discussion question: What activities do you want to do with your friends when you are able to leave your house again?

Third Grade - Good People Everywhere, By Lynea Gillen

Discussion question: What are people doing to help others stay safe and healthy right now?

Fourth Grade - A Penguin Named Patience: A Hurricane Katrina Rescue Story, By Suzanne Lewis and Lisa Anchin

Discussion question: What are some ways that you can practice patience at home?

Fifth Grade - The Stone Soup Book of Friendship Stories, By William Rubel and Gerry Mandel

Discussion question: What is your favorite friendship story?

Sixth Grade - Courage for Beginners, By Karen Harrington

Discussion question: What can you do when things go differently than planned?

Seventh Grade - Seedfolks, By Paul Fleischman

Discussion question: What are some ways that people are working together to keep your community safe and healthy right now?

Eighth Grade - It's Your World: Get Informed, Get Inspired & Get Going!, By Chelsea Clinton

Discussion question: What can you do to help others right now?

We'd love to see what you and your students are doing!
Tag us on social media #choosetobenice

